

Gewürztraminer 2020

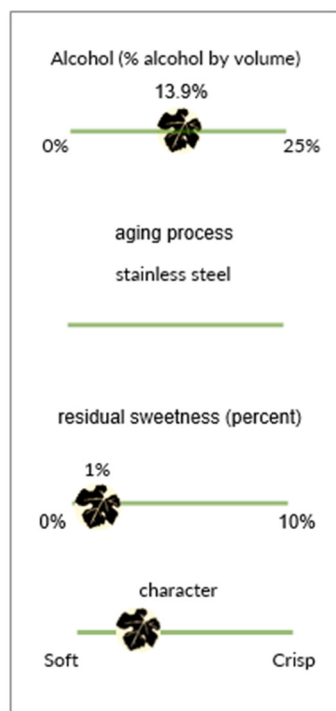

WINEMAKER NOTES

Pronounced “Guh-voorts-trah-mee-ner,” this grape originated in Germany. It is similar to Riesling and Moscato in that it tends to have a very floral, even sweet, aroma. It is often made into sweet or dessert style wine but can be made into very complex dry wines too. This Gewürztraminer is made with a more fruit forward approach, not quite dry but not sweet either. It is the perfect weekday wine.

TASTING NOTES

This Gewürztraminer has an inviting slight honeyed color. Delightful aromas of golden pear, green mango, and papaya start this wine off. The first sip cotes the mouth with more tropical fruit flavors reminiscent of pineapple. Soft with just the right amount of crispness it has a finish of Persian lime.
