

Sweet Moscato 2019

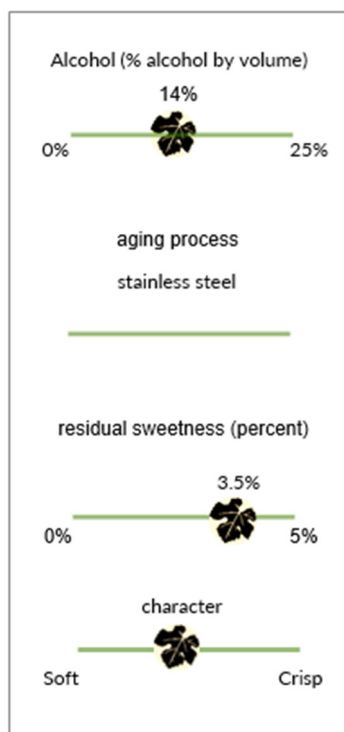

WINEMAKER NOTES

There are over 200 grape varieties belonging to the Muscat family. Muscat grapes are not just grown for wine production but also for raisins and table grapes. Although the variety is best known for making very sweet wines, it can also be used to make crisp dry wines as well. Its versatility and hardiness keeps it a staple among wine producing regions across the world.

TASTING NOTES

Light in color, this delightfully sweet Moscato will whisk you away with its delicate, tropical aromas. The island life continues as the flavors are reminiscent of guava with a lingering finish of pear and apricot.

TECHNICAL NOTES

Varietals & Vineyards:

100% Muscat Canelli from Krick Hill Vineyards
Levelland, TX

Harvest Date:

August 2019

Aging:

100% Stainless steel
Bottled May 29, 2020

Food Pairing:

Spicy kimchi tacos, chicken enchiladas, smoked Gouda mac and cheese, brisket baked potatoes, and any light appetizers.